

Course Description

This three-credit course is designed to integrate the Marquette Core by emphasizing the reflection on and application of knowledge and skills developed in the Core for life beyond Marquette University. A special focus on vocation and discernment

The Service of Faith and the Promotion of Justice is the culminating course of Marquette's core curriculum and contributes to the following six outcomes:

Moral and Ethical Actors

Marquette students will be able to articulate appropriate professional and personal judgments that are rooted in an ethical and moral foundation and informed by Catholic, Jesuit thought. They will use these foundations to make decisions that promote stronger communities and a just society.

Citizens with Purpose

Use the tools of discernment to evaluate personal and social decisions in light of the implications for diverse communities and the common good.

Articulate their own overarching commitment(s) to values transcending self-interest in order to define their post-graduate plans in vocational terms.

Academic dishonesty in any form is a serious offense. According to the Marquette Bulletin, the following, along with others, are cases of academic dishonesty:

- Copying another student's assignment, quiz, or exam
- Using unauthorized electronic devices or materials during an exam or quiz or for an assignment
- Communicating answers for an assignment, exam, or quiz
- O
