1. What are the major steps of Marquette's academic program review process?
 - a. A Provost's Summit is held to establish a set of three strategic issues for the self-study and the review.
 - b. After the summit, the unit identifies at least 5 potential reviewers and works with the Office of Institutional Research and Analysis (OIRA), the Assessment Director, and the Office of Finance to identify data needed for the self-study.
 - c. External reviewers are invited to participate in the review and the campus visit dates are established by the Provost's office in consultation with the academic units.
 - d. The self-study is completed by the unit four weeks prior to the visit, reviewed by the Office of the Provost and shared with the reviewers two weeks prior to the visit.
 - e. While on campus, the reviewers meet with unit leadership, students, faculty, the Program Review Council (PRC), and the Provost.
 - f. The external reviewers' report is submitted two weeks after the campus visit.
